16th June 2017

Dear parents/carers,

Next week, on Wednesday 21st June 2017, the NSPCC will be joining us to deliver some assemblies to our children as part of their Speak Out. Stay Safe. programme.

We wanted to provide a summary of the content of the assemblies to ensure you are comfortable with what is being delivered.

Children will be introduced to a mascot, named Buddy, in a friendly and age appropriate way.

Children's rights will be discussed:

- The right to speak out and be heard
- The right to be safe
- The right to get help when they need it

KS1 assembly- Case studies will be used to introduce definitions of a variety of forms of abuse. These are entitled: 'hitting', 'hurting children's feelings', 'privates are private', 'not looked after property' and 'bullying'.

KS2- The following types of abuse will be discussed: 'emotional abuse', 'physical abuse', 'sexual abuse', 'neglect' and 'bullying'.

Key messages about talking to trusted grown-ups and about Childline will also be shared with the children.

Please be reassured that the NSPCC's volunteers are very skilled at delivering this sensitive subject matter with a child-friendly, engaging style. All of their presentations are interactive, motivating and uplifting for children, helping us to ensure that they retain our important safeguarding messages.

If you do have any remaining worries or concerns, then please do come and see us to discuss these.

Thank you for your support in helping us to keep our children safe,

Yours Sincerely,

Miss Kohli.
