14th September 2017

Dear Parent/Carer,

On Monday 18th September Wednesfield Magazine will be coming into school to photograph our new Reception class's first days at school in their new uniforms. A professional photographer is lined up to come and take the photos.

This was done last year and was a massive success and went down extremely well with parents, family and friends, who like to keep a memento of this special time.

The magazine goes to the printers in September and photographs will be published in the Oct/Nov issue of the Wednesfield Magazine.

Could you please sign the consent form below if you wish your child to be photographed and their picture published in the magazine. If we do not receive the permission slip back from you they will not be able to have their photograph taken.

Yours sincerely,

R Kohli
Head of School
