Roald Dahl Day – Friday 13th September

Dear Parent/Carer,

As you may know, Friday 13th September is Roald Dahl Day, a national event which commemorates and remembers the birth of one of Britain's greatest children's authors. To mark the occasion, the children and staff at Perry Hall Primary School will be invited to dress up as a Roald Dahl character, for a £1 contribution to be shared between Roald Dahl's Marvellous Children's Charity and our school fund, which we plan to spend on books across school.

There are a vast number of characters to choose from including Matilda, Fantastic Mr Fox, Mr or Mrs Twit, Charlie (from Charlie and the Chocolate Factory), or even an Oompa-Loompa. There is something for everyone!

During the day, children will take part in activities based on a popular Roald Dahl text, as well as contributing to a whole school writing project.

To find out more about this fantastic author, the national event, or simply for inspiration please visit the Official Roald Dahl website <https://www.roalddahl.com/>, where you will find more information, as well as activities for your children to enjoy.

Yours sincerely,

Miss Kohli
