Perry Hall Macmillan Coffee Morning

A huge thank you to the parents, carers, grandparents and families of Perry Hall for attending the Macmillan Coffee morning.

We had over 300 parents, carers, grandparents and families attend the event and we raised an astounding

Can we also take this opportunity to thank you all for your patience and support while we opened an additional hall to accommodate everyone due to the number of parents attending without completing their reply slips in advance.

National Poetry Day

Poetry helps in language development, creative language skills, creativity, writing skills, self-expression, and in the development of natural rhythms

Thank you to all parents and carers that came long to Perry Hall's poetry afternoon.

Once again a great success with some great sharing of poetry across the school. Children across Key stages 1 and 2 shared the poems they have been analysing, creating and reciting!
