

Christmas has started !

Well done to all the children and staff for their amazing Christmas performances and sing-alongs!

It was lovely to see all the parents, carers and grandparents bursting with pride. What a great start to our Christmas!

Thank you so much for your support. We raised £235.70

We would like to wish all our Perry Hall children and their families a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year !

We hope your holiday is filled with lots of laughter and happiness and the children come refreshed, ready for their safe return back to school on Tuesday 7th January!

THANK YOU SO MUCH !!

A huge thank you to the PTA for all their support and hard work this term. They have put on some wonderful events and provided children with lots of treats over the festive period.

This term the PTA fundraising has paid towards the following:

- Talk boards in the dining room for lunchtimes
- Farm on Wheels Nativity visit for Nursery and Twos children
- Panto Tickets for Year 2 children
- Christmas gifts for all children

The PTA are working with all year groups to ensure all money raised is used to provide wonderful experiences for everyone throughout the year.

If you would like to be part of the PTA, please let the school office know.
