

Last Week's Book Fair

Thank you to everyone for their help and support with the Travelling Book Fair which visited Perry Hall last week. It was fantastic to see so many of the pupils excited by the books and eager to return home to read them with their families.

Thanks to you, the Travelling Book Fair helped us to raise £213.39 to put towards books for our new school library. Thank you!

Half Term's Writing Projects

As part of our aim to create a community of writers, your child returned home with their 'Writing for Pleasure' homework project last week. The aim of this project is to allow pupils to stop and think about how they interact with writing on a daily basis outside of the class room.

Each child has been asked to complete wither a 'Writing River' of 'Sofa Scribbling' over the half term.

Please return complete writing projects to your child's class teacher by Monday 6th June.

Happy Half Term

A reminder that, today, we break up for a one week half term break. Thank you, as always, for your support throughout this short, but very busy first half of the Summer Term. Have a great break and we will see your child back in school on Monday 6th June. We look forward to our final half term of the academic year. Mrs Gibbins.

Perry Hall's Jubilee Celebrations

This week, the children throughout school have had an amazing time celebrating the Queen's 70th Jubilee, starting with very successful Play and Stay sessions with Twos and Nursery on Wednesday. Thank you to all the parents and family members who joined us in crafting, playing and having fun!

On Thursday it was the turn of the rest of the school, from Reception to Year 6, who arrived to school to greet Her Majesty (and her trusty dog, Dave) dressed in red, white and blue. The children had a wonderful morning learning about the Queen before tucking in to delicious party-food.

The afternoon saw the return of GlastonPerry Festival with all year groups performing a song from the 7 decades of Her Majesty's reign. Family members joined us in singing the national anthem and the staff even contributed with their own song too!

A wonderful time was had by all and our children performed beautifully - we are rightfully very proud. The children went home with their own jubilee coin to commemorate this once in a lifetime event - kindly paid for by our PTA. Thank you to everyone who came to celebrate with us and to the staff and children for their hard work in contributing to the decorations, the art work display (which I'm sure you will agree looked incredible) and for their dedication to the performances to make this week one we definitely won't forget!
