

Remembrance Day—11.11.22

Next Friday marks Remembrance Day 2022. Within school, we will be holding our own act of remembrance. On this day, please could children come into school dressed in a red item of clothing. Please look out for Remembrance displays in the classroom windows which will be on display from the start of next week.

From Monday, poppies will be on sale in school for 20p each if children wish to buy one.

Perry Hall News!

Friday 4th November 2022

A Place to Grow

Welcome to Perry Hall News, a weekly newsletter to celebrate our achievements and keep you up-to-date with upcoming events.

Parents/carers...please come and join us for our weekly aerobics sessions...

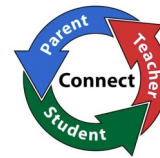

Parents/carers are welcome to join their children for a short aerobics/keep fit session as the school gates open at 8.35am on a Tuesday morning for KS1 and on a Thursday morning for KS2, weather dependant. We really hope that you can join us from next week.

Parent Consultations

Thank you to those families who have booked a parent consultation time slot with their child's class teacher for next Wednesday evening, later in the month for 3AG, or, if your child has a structured meeting, over the next few weeks. We look forward to meeting with you to discuss your child's progress and to share how they have settled in to their new year groups. Today we have sent out a letter providing further details about how next Wednesday will work—if you have not already read this letter, please access this using the following link:

The Travelling Book Fair

Next week, the Travelling Book Fair will be returning to Perry Hall. The Travelling Book Fair is a fantastic opportunity to purchase the most recent best-selling children's books and allows school to raise money towards purchasing books for our own school library. The book fair will be located in the Infant Hall at 3.15pm on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday and will also be available throughout parent consultation evening on Wednesday. If your child attends morning Nursery or morning Two's, the books will be available for you to view on Tuesday at the end of your child's session. For the full information letter, please use the following link:
