

Wednesday 15th February

Dear parents/carers,

Once again, we are approaching one of Perry Hall's favourite days of the year; World Book Day. This year, World Book Day will be held on Thursday 2nd March and Perry Hall will champion this day as a way to raise the profile of Reading for Pleasure across the school.

During the day, children will be completing a number of Reading for Pleasure activities, as well as basing their work around some of their favourite book characters. Alongside this, children are also invited to come into school out of uniform on Thursday 2nd March. Your child may wish to come to school dressed as their favourite book character, or, in 'Bedtime Story' clothes (i.e. pyjamas). There are a number of easy and home-made character dress up ideas available online that may inspire your child. However, your child may also wear something cosy that they can relax in with a good book if they do not wish to dress up this year.

As part of the celebration, Perry Hall will be using the World Book Day £1 book tokens to provide each child with a book from this year's book list (<https://www.worldbookday.com/books/>). Your child will pick this book in class this week with their class teacher. These books will be distributed to the children in school during World Book Week.

Each week, our children partake in ERIC (Everybody Reads In Class) time, where they are either read to by a member of staff, or they have the opportunity to enjoy their favourite book. We would like to invite you to one of your child's ERIC time sessions, as part of celebrating Reading for Pleasure. These sessions will take place in your child's classroom, and a text message will be sent out nearer the time regarding entrances and exits. The dates and times are below:
