This week's Music Assembly led by Wolverhampton Music School

On Tuesday, Years 2-6 had lots of fun watching an assembly led by a band of musicians from Wolverhampton Music Service. The children joined in by clapping to the beat of the music and saw a variety of instruments being played. At the end of the assembly, they were even lucky enough to see a violin bow made from real horse's hair which resulted in many surprised faces.

Mrs Hallard's Recommended Read of the Week

My recommended read is Room on the Broom—a story tailored for our younger readers but can be enjoyed by all! Room on the Broom is a smiley tale about a friendly witch who can always make room for another friend. Every animal that she welcomes to her friendship circle joins forces to rescue her from the big bad dragon at the end of the story.

This is lovely story to read with younger children; my 18 month old gets excited about the different animals and loves to join in by making the animal noises.

Are you this week's star of the week?

A child from each class is chosen as Star of the Week for doing something special during that week. It may be related to their work, behaviour and/or their attitudes to learning.
